

C.R.S. § 18-13-122 - Illegal possession or consumption of ethyl alcohol by an underage person.

(2) (a) Any person under twenty-one years of age who possesses or consumes ethyl alcohol anywhere in the state of Colorado commits illegal possession or consumption of ethyl alcohol by an underage person. Illegal possession or consumption of ethyl alcohol by an underage person is a strict liability offense.

Fort Collins Municipal Code Sec. 17-141
Carrying or drinking liquor or fermented malt beverages in certain places.

(a) No person shall carry or have any opened container of liquor or fermented malt beverage on any street, sidewalk, alley or other public place, in any automobile or on the grounds or in the facilities of any public or private school, college or university except where authorized by the governing authority of such institution.

(b) No person shall drink any liquor or fermented malt beverages in or on any of the above enumerated places.

(c) The foregoing prohibitions shall not apply to any place duly licensed for the sale of liquor or fermented malt beverages.

(d) As used in this Section, the phrase opened container shall mean any container other than the original, closed container as sealed or closed for sale to the public by the manufacturer or the bottler of the liquor or fermented malt beverage. If an original container has been unsealed, undone or opened in any manner, it shall be considered an opened container for purposes of this Section. Also, if any liquor or fermented malt beverage has been transferred from its original container into another container, whether that other container is closed or sealed in any way, the container into which the liquor or fermented malt beverage has been transferred shall be deemed to be an opened container under this definition.

C.R.S. § 18-9-117 - Unlawful conduct on public property.

(1) It is unlawful for any person to enter or remain in any public building or on any public property or to conduct himself in or on the same in violation of any order, rule, or regulation concerning any matter prescribed in this subsection (1), limiting or prohibiting the use or activities or conduct in such public building or on such public property, issued by any officer or agency having the power of control, management, or supervision of the building or property. In addition to any authority granted by any other law, each such officer or agency may adopt such orders, rules, or regulations as are reasonably necessary for the administration, protection, and maintenance of such public buildings and property, specifically, orders, rules, and regulations upon the following matters:

(a) Preservation of property, vegetation, wildlife, signs, markers, statues, buildings and grounds, and other structures, and any object of scientific, historical, or scenic interest;

(b) Restriction or limitation of the use of such public buildings or property as to time, manner, or permitted activities;

(c) Prohibition of activities or conduct within public buildings or on public property which may be reasonably expected to substantially interfere with the use and enjoyment of such places by others or which may constitute a general nuisance;

(d) Necessary sanitation, health, and safety measures, consistent with section 25-13-113, C.R.S.;

(e) Camping and picnicking, public meetings and assemblages, and other individual or group usages, including the place, time, and manner in which such activities may be permitted;

(f) Use of all vehicles as to place, time, and manner of use;

(g) Control and limitation of fires and designation of places where fires are permitted.

(2) No conviction may be obtained under this section unless notice of such limitations or prohibitions is prominently posted at all public entrances to such building or property or unless such notice is actually first given the person by the officer or agency, including any agent thereof, or by any law enforcement officer having jurisdiction or authority to enforce this section.

(3) Any person who violates subsection (1) of this section is guilty of a class 3 misdemeanor
